

Live through Newfangled

The Sun god a.k.a. Pratyaksha Daivam (the visible god as per Hindu Mythology), is the guiding force of life in all forms that thrive on earth. This ideology and a vision to create green spaces amidst the growing concrete jungle laid the foundation of Dharmasthali.

The larger-than-life sculpture of Sun God surrounded by the alpine 30' pillars set the magnitude and mood of the property right at the entrance. With 66' BT road, the very first sight of the property makes it evident that Dharmasthali is bigger than your imagination. It truly carries forward the legacy of IndoQatar through sheer magnitude and grandness.

Smoggy mornings, noisy afternoons and bright nights, that's how our present life is? Residing in a concrete jungle we are constantly surrounded by sound and air pollution. Dharmasthali, Khammam is an endeavour to bring to life a vision of perfect and peaceful living amidst blue skies and lush green fields, mesmeric sunsets and a chorus of birds.

Dharmasthali truly is a little piece of paradise that offers more than the maximum. It is an enviable combination of the right investment and healthy living vastly spread in the lap of uninterrupted nature. It stimulates you to experience eco-friendly living and the best escape to a different world.

Experience
